

THERE USED TO BE A BALLPARK RIGHT HERE

Words and Music by JOE RAPOSO

Arranged by VAL HICKS
as sung by The Masters of Harmony

The musical score is written for Tenor Lead and Bari Bass in 4/4 time, featuring a key signature of two flats (B-flat and E-flat). The score is divided into three systems, each with a vocal line and a piano accompaniment line. The lyrics are: "Oh, there used to be a ball park where the field was warm and green, And the peo - ple played their cra - zy game with a joy I've nev - er seen, and the air was such a won - der from the hot dogs and the beer, yes, there". The score includes various musical notations such as notes, rests, and slurs, with some notes marked with numbers 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, and 6. There are also some 'oo' and 'oh' markings above the notes.

Tenor Lead

Bari Bass

Oh, there used to be a ball park where the field was warm and green, And the peo - ple played their cra - zy game with a joy I've nev - er seen, and the air was such a won - der from the hot dogs and the beer, yes, there

There Used to Be a Ballpark Right Here

used to be a ball park right here. And there used to be rock can - dy on a great big fourth of Ju - ly. With the fire works ^{'cross} sky.

fi - re works ex - plod - ing all a - cross the sum - mer sky.
And the

fire works ^{'cross} sky

peo - ple watched in won - der, how they'd laugh and how they'd cheer. And there

There Used to Be a Ballpark Right Here

15
oh,
used to be a ball park right here.

16
Now the 17

oh

18
child - ren try to find it and they can't be - lieve their eyes, 'cause the

19
oh

20
old team is - n't play - ing and the new team hard - ly tries, and the 21

ah

22
when it used to be so clear, and the

There Used to Be a Ballpark Right Here

sum - mer went so quick - ly this year. Yes there

sum - mer went so quick - ly this year. Yes there

used to be a ball park right here.

used to be a ball park right here.